

TERMS & CONDITIONS

The SJVN Online Recruitment Portal provides a facility to the aspiring applicants to apply in SJVN through online submission of their applications. However, the following terms and conditions will apply if you wish to use this portal to apply for the vacancies advertised by SJVN from time to time:

1. The registration of Candidate is strictly provisional and subject to the terms laid down in the Advertisement against which the candidate is applying.
2. The extent to which this portal will be used in the Recruitment Process will be illustrated in the respective advertisement in detailed version.
3. The candidate himself is liable for his eligibility against any advertisement as the eligibility will be verified by SJVN only at final stage.

While registering yourself with our portal you have to register the true and accurate basic personal/professional details on the site to apply. Please note that once you are registered, you would be deemed to agree to the terms and conditions set forth.